ABOUT UNYDP PROGRAMME

SIOI - UNA Italy, in cooperation with the Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, is promoting and organizing the United Nations Youth Delegate Programme for Italian students (UNYDP Italy).

Youth Delegates (YDs) are young people who officially represent the interests of the youth of their country at the United Nations. They are selected to accompany their government's diplomatic delegation to the UN meetings.

2017 is a crucial year for the Italian leading role in multilateral relations: Italy is serving first as non-permanent member of the UNSC and will hold the rotating presidency in November; the 43rd G7 summit under Italian presidency will be held on May 26-27 in Taormina; Italy will also be a part in the troika of OSCE in view of being the chair in 2018.

Including UNA-UNYA Youth Delegates in the Italian government delegation to the 72nd United Nations General Assembly represents a unique opportunity for Italian young students interested in global affairs and decision-making.
